

Book Recommendations

Mrs Hiller recommends this book:

Whenever I have a new history topic to teach and I want facts that I know I and the children will enjoy learning, I always head first to the Horrible History books. They are full of interesting and fun information which can be sometimes wicked and sometimes wondrous - but never boring!